Tournament Rain Policy:

The time limit continues to be in effect during a rain delay (Time limit clock does not stop during the rain delay).

- A. If a game is interrupted at the end of an inning, and at least four innings have been played, and time has expired, the game will be declared complete.
- B. If a rain interruption occurs during an inning, and at least four innings have been completed and time has expired, the game will be declared complete and the score at the end of the previous inning will be the final score.
- C. If a rain interruption occurs at any time prior to the completion of 4 ½ innings, the game will resume at that point and continue until 5 innings have been played. The game will continue after 5 innings only if the time limit has not expired.
- D. Games subsequent to rain delay will remain at 7 innings and a 1 hour and 30 minute time limit (no new inning). If in the tournament director's opinion all games subsequent to the rain delay should be shortened to 6 innings and a 75 minute time limit in order to complete the tournament on time, the games will be shortened.
- E. Rule D may be applied to any portion of the tournament. If the tournament returns back to schedule, games may return to the 7 inning/ 90 minute (no new inning) time limit. This is all at the discretion of the tournament director.
- F. If the rain delay occurs on Sunday and it becomes impossible to complete the tournament, winners will be determined by the Round Robin tiebreaker rules if no games have been played. Otherwise, the 2 highest seeded teams will be declared the winners of the tournament.
- G. The tournament director does reserve the right to alter the tournament schedule and/or format in the event of prolonged or severe weather conditions. Ultimately the objective of the rain policy is to be fair to all participants and give everyone the number of games they deserve. The tournament director will strive to be fair to everyone, however there may be unforeseen circumstances that a totally acceptable conclusion may be possible to attain.

Refunds:

If the tournament is shortened due to weather, teams will be entitled to a refund based on the following formula:

- A. If a team plays zero games, the team will be entitled to their entry fee less non-recoverable tournament expenses. These include but not limited to perishable food, T-shirts, trophies, game balls and insurance. Tournament will provide USA Softball MA this calculation within 7 days of the tournament for approval. Once approved, tournament must send each team a copy of this calculation along with their refund.
- B. If one game is played, the refund will be 50% of the registration fee.
- C. If two or more games are played, no refund will be given.
- D. Tournaments must refund teams within 14 days from when the tournament was scheduled.
